

belux koi-s combines form and function in an astounding manner, because Naoto Fukasawa's credo "super normal design" reflects the design in a matter-of-fact way. The consistently slim-line construction makes v koi-s appear still more delicate and elegant. The luminaire family is thus particularly suitable for offices in which a cosier atmosphere is to be generated or for the home office. Despite its smaller size, belux koi-s provides an impressive 9000 lumens of non-directional LED light. For extra comfort, the direct and indirect light can be dimmed independently of each other.
